Understanding The Principle of Prevenient Grace

Romans 6:14—For sin shall not be master over you, for you are not under law but under grace.

Isaiah 59:2—But your iniquities have made a separation between you and your God, and your sins have hidden His face from you so that He does not hear.

Romans 2:15—In that they show the work of the Law written in their hearts, their conscience bearing witness and their thoughts alternately accusing or else defending them

1 Samuel 24:5—It came about afterward that David's conscience bothered him because he had cut off the edge of Saul's robe.

Psalms 86:5—For You, Lord, are good, and ready to forgive, (salach—related to nasa, which denotes the removal of our sense of guilt and condemnation produced by our sin.), and abundant in lovingkindness to all who call upon You.

Isaiah 55:7—Let the wicked forsake his way and the unrighteous man his thoughts; and let him return to the Lord, and He will have compassion on him, and to our God, for He will abundantly pardon (salach).

NKJ Nehemiah 9:17—They refused to obey, and they were not mindful of Your wonders that You did among them. But they hardened their necks, and in their rebellion they appointed a leader to return to their bondage. But You are God, ready to pardon, (root: salach) gracious and merciful, slow to anger, abundant in kindness, and did not forsake them.

1 John 1:9—If we confess our sins, He is faithful and righteous to forgive (apheimi, removal of guilt from ones own psyche) us our sins and to cleanse us from all unrighteousness

2 Corinthians 2:7—So that on the contrary you should rather forgive (charizomai, letting go of ill feelings toward those who have wronged you) and comfort him, otherwise such a one might be overwhelmed by excessive sorrow.

2 Corinthians 2:10—But one whom you forgive (charizomai) anything, I forgive also; for indeed what I have forgiven, if I have forgiven anything, I did it for your sakes in the presence of Christ.

2 Corinthians 12:13—For in what respect were you treated as inferior to the rest of the churches, except that I myself did not become a burden to you? Forgive (charizomai) me this wrong!

Colossians 3:13—Bearing with one another, and forgiving each

“I have come that they may have life, and have it to the full.” —John 10:10, NIV

other, whoever has a complaint against anyone; just as the Lord forgave (charizomai) you, so also should you.

Ephesians 4:32—Be kind to one another, tender-hearted, forgiving each other, just as God in Christ also has forgiven (charizomai) you.

2 Corinthians 5:19—Namely, that God was in Christ reconciling the world to Himself, not counting their trespasses against them, and He has committed to us the word of reconciliation.

Colossians 2:13,14—When you were dead in your transgressions and the uncircumcision of your flesh, He made you alive together with Him, having forgiven (charizomai) us all our transgressions, having canceled out the certificate of debt (cheirographon) consisting of decrees against us, which was hostile to us; and He has taken it out of the way, having nailed it to the cross.

NKJ 1 John 3:20—For if our heart condemns us, God is greater than our heart, and knows all things.

Matthew 6:14-15—“For if you forgive others for their transgressions, your heavenly Father will also forgive you. But if you do not forgive others, then your Father will not forgive your transgressions.”

John 8:10—Straightening up, Jesus said to her, “Woman, where are they? Did no one condemn you?”

Romans 2:4—Or do you think lightly of the riches of His kindness and tolerance and patience, not knowing that the kindness of God leads you to repentance?
